

SAN FRANCISCO COLLABORATIVE AGAINST HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Human Trafficking Awareness Campaign January – February 2017

In January 2010, the San Francisco Collaborative Against Human Trafficking formally launched and hosted the 1st annual Human Trafficking Awareness Campaign. This year marks the 8th anniversary of these efforts, and the Campaign has grown tremendously.

Officially, the Campaign runs from January 11th, National Human Trafficking Awareness Day, through February 12th, Abraham Lincoln's Birthday, though certain events fall outside those constraints.

Let us know what events you are planning to host between January 11th and February 12th. To include them in the calendar of events, please submit to antonia@sfcaht.org the following information:

Stacy Jewell presents the theater production of “7 Layers Captive”
County of Santa Clara, Office of Women’s Policy

Date/Time: Thursday, January 26, 2017 | 7:00pm – 9:00pm

Place: Theater at the Mexican Heritage Plaza, School of Arts & Culture, 1700 Alum Rock Ave.
San Jose, CA 95116

Description: 7 Layers Captive is the dramatic true story of one young woman’s horrific abduction into prostitution and her ultimate escape and triumphal survival—told by the woman it all happened to. Stacy Jewell, in her own poetic words, will move and inspire audiences by her grit and spirit as she delivers with the authority and authenticity of someone who has been there and back, leaving her heart and soul wide open on stage. Using the power of music, poetry, and stunning visuals, 7 Layers Captive exposes the psychological programming that takes place in sex trafficking.

7 Layers Captive was the "Winner of Best Play & Performance of 2015 Washington, DC, " DC Metro Theater Arts. Tickets are free to the public through Eventbrite, seats are not assigned so arrive early to ensure seating preferences, doors open at 6:30pm, and the play begins at 7pm.

7 Layers Captive contains mature content and may be inappropriate for children under 13. Parental discretion is advised.
