- An annual award recognizing anti-trafficking activists in San Francisco has been created.
- The committee will invite & recognize Jill Treger at the press conference, as well as Libby Denebim and Norma Satten for developing the concept of SFCaHT.

▪ Timeline and Events:

- La Raza, Freedom House, SFWPC, Jewish Coalition, and others will all be holding events during Human Trafficking Awareness Month

- Panel to conclude Human Trafficking Awareness Month in February (Possibly 2 panels will be shown, if SFWPC can coordinate another panel sometime in mid January)

▪ Action Steps:

- Send nominations for award to Laura Marshall. Information about the nomination process will be available on the Human Rights Commission website.
- Images of pins to be distributed during Human Trafficking Awareness Month, will be sent out to the SFCAHT members, and organizations need to let the working group know the number of “Say No 2 Slavery” pins they would like by next Friday (December 11, 2009). Contact Candice Gold with this information.
- If anyone has legislation/representative contacts, please let Kate Kerr know.

III. Directory of Services for Survivors of Human Trafficking

▪ Discussion:

- Laura will be e-mailing people individually for additional information for directory
- Laura needs quotes, stats, etc for filler spaces in directory and images for the cover of the directory
- Directory will be available online, but SFCAHT will need funding to print at least 1,000 copies of the directory
 - Do organizations have the capacity to translate directory to other languages to better serve trafficking population?

▪ Action Steps:

- D.A. & Mayor’s Office will look into their budgets for printing the Directory.

IV. Future Meeting

▪ Discussion:

- The next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, January 6, 2010 at 12 noon in City Hall, Rm 288 (tentative).
- Governance committee will decide logistics surrounding future meetings, such as meeting purpose, times, place, etc.
 - SFCAHT decided to tentatively schedule future meetings for first Friday of every month.
 - Nancy Goldberg encouraged everyone to offer their organization’s space for a future meeting location, as visiting each other’s place of work and learning about the services provided by each organization helps to strengthen the collaborative.

▪ Action Steps:

- Nancy Kirshner-Rodriguez will follow up on the January 6th meeting location in City Hall
- During the January 6th meeting, we will have a sign up for organizations to host a meeting for the rest of the year.
