

PAMELA ESTES

Coordinator

San Mateo County Human Trafficking Program

Pamela Estes has a six-year tenure with the San Mateo County Human Trafficking Program, and currently holds the position of Program Coordinator. Her professional journey is anchored by a law license, complemented by training dedicated to the complexities of human trafficking which includes her certifications as both a Human Trafficking Caseworker and a Sexual Assault Counselor. Preceding her tenure in the program, she co-founded an impactful anti-trafficking awareness initiative, demonstrating her commitment to combating this pervasive issue.

Pamela Estes was recognized for her contributions receiving the 2017 Freedom Fighter Award from the Bay Area Anti-Trafficking Coalition, and the San Mateo County Sheriff's Commendation in 2019 for her work in the Human Trafficking Program and victim advocacy.
