

2013 MODERN DAY ABOLITIONIST AWARD Nomination Instructions

The San Francisco Collaborative Against Human Trafficking (SFC AHT) is seeking nominations of leaders combating human trafficking in the San Francisco Bay Area to receive the 2013 Modern Day Abolitionist Award.

Nominees must be active in the fight to end modern day slavery through human trafficking prevention, prosecution and protection of victims. Nominees must have demonstrated a commitment to creating a local and global community that values human life and abhors practices that deny a person's right to live a life free from violence, exploitation, or slavery.

SFC AHT comprises representatives from nongovernmental organizations, government agencies and the community. SFC AHT recognizes that leaders can emerge from diverse fields and backgrounds, and encourages nominations from all sectors of anti-trafficking work in the San Francisco Bay Area. For more information about SFC AHT, visit www.sfcaht.org.

---

NOMINATIONS

To nominate an individual, please submit an application (no longer than one page) by 5:00 pm on Monday, January 5, 2013, including the following information:

1. Your name and contact information, including agency affiliation (if applicable).
2. Nominee's name and contact information, including agency affiliation (if applicable).
3. Your relationship with the nominee.
4. An explanation, in 2 or 3 paragraphs, how the nominee embodies the SFC AHT values, and why the nominee should be awarded the SFC AHT Modern Day Abolitionist Award.

---

SELECTION

A Selection Committee of the Collaborative will review all nominations. The winner of the 2013 Modern Day Abolitionist Award will be honored on January 14, 2013, at the opening of Human Trafficking Awareness Month at San Francisco City Hall.

Send applications by email to:

Antonia Lavine

Chair, SFC AHT Public Policy Committee

Chair, Jewish Coalition to End Human Trafficking (JCEHT)

E-mail: antoniasb@hotmail.com